Review Summary

89 pts – TOP 100 BEST BUYS "This medium-bodied Shiraz is supple, immediately drinkable and complex—what more could one want for under $15? Find plummy fruit, meaty elements, cracked pepper and hints of mocha and a long, savory finish here."

88 pts "Deep ruby. Spicy, perfumed aromas of black and blue fruits are complemented by a soft floral element. Supple and sweet, offering jammy cassis and blueberry flavors and a touch of cracked pepper. Shows a spicy quality on the smooth, tannin-free finish."

87 pts – BEST BUY "Even in a warm vintage, this wine carries the cool spice of Great Southern shiraz, here in a blend with grapes from other districts of Western Australia. It's grapey and pleasantly sweet, balanced by black olive and cola notes."
