Phoenix Cabernet Sauvignon 2004

Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar

Jul/Aug 2006

90 pts

Dense ruby. Powerful, nicely delineated scents of cassis, cherry skin, espresso, mint and graphite; this could be a hot-vintage Medoc wine. Nicely focused blackcurrant and cherry flavors are complicated by a note of bitter chocolate, with fine-grained tannins providing structure. This midweight cabernet should age nicely for at least a decade.
