

2005 KILIKANOON THE DUKE GRENACHE

Review Summary

93 pts “Certainly has far more weight and structure than any other Clare Valley grenache, the rich raspberry, rhubarb and cherry fruit a coherent whole.”

James Halliday
2009 Wine Companion

91 pts “Deep red. Seductive raspberry and cherry-vanilla on the nose, with suave mineral and pungent herbal undertones. Fleshy, deeply concentrated red fruit flavors verge on jammy but are enlivened by tangy cherry skin and smoky minerality. Supple and sweet, with good finishing intensity and persistence. Still, Old World palates may struggle with this fruit bomb.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
Jul/Aug 2008

90 pts “Dark and dense, with an airy feel to the texture that lightens up the brooding black cherry and smoke flavors, lingering on the fine-grained finish. Drink now through 2014. 250 cases imported.”

Harvey Steiman
Wine Spectator, Great Australian Reds
October 15, 2008