

2006 KILIKANOON THE LACKEY SHIRAZ

Review Summary

89 pts - TOP 500 SMART BUY & TOP 500 GREAT BUY “This complex red offers layers of spice and mineral that weave through the ripe blackberry and licorice flavors, playing against a light burr of tannins as it all lasts on the generous finish.”

Harvey Steiman
Wine Spectator
Daily Wine Pick Oct. 6, 2009
Issue October 15, 2009

89 pts “The Shiraz lineup begins with the bargain-priced 2006 Shiraz “The Lackey” which was aged for 15 months in seasoned American oak and bottled without fining or filtration. It offers a stylish bouquet for its humble price featuring aromas of cedar, bacon, plum, and blueberry. This leads to a medium-bodied wine with good grip, intensity, and length. It is a Best Buy.”

Jay Miller
Robert Parker’s The Wine Advocate
October 2007, Issue 173

87 pts “Smoky lift to the aromas and flavors of blackberry, cassis and licorice. Supple and ripe (this clocks in at 15% alcohol), offering sweet dark berry preserve flavors and a kick of cracked pepper. Not the last word in finesse or complexity, but packs a wallop of dark fruit flavor and finishes round and sweet.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
July/August 2009