

2006 KILIKANOON PARABLE SHIRAZ

Review History

94 pts - Best of the Best by Variety “Mocha and fruitcake bouquet; quite toasty on the palate, with chewy, tarry fruit and a seriously firm and dry finish; certainly large in scale.”

James Halliday

92 pts “Glass-staining violet color. Musky red and dark berries on the nose, with zesty mineral and floral qualities adding complexity. Very fresh and focused, offering sweet black raspberry and smoky herb flavors and a refreshing kick of minerals. Finishes on a tangy note of red berry skin, with excellent clarity and persistence.”

92 pts “The oak’s a bit on the punchy side to start with, but it breathes up to licorice, chocolate and dark plum fruits – plenty to love. The palate’s a rich, supple mouthful with long, fine, smooth tannins and some sweet oak poking through dark plum fruit.”

Nick Stock
The Penguin Good Australian Wine Guide 2010

90 pts “A finely judged blend of fruity and savory, the 2006 Parable marries ripe plums with meaty elements as well as hints of coffee and vanilla. It’s round in the mouth and cuddly in texture, finishing with the softness of velvet. “

89+ pts “The nose gives up notes of mineral, pepper, damp earth, and black fruits. On the palate it is a bit compressed and tightly wound.”
