

2006 BROKENWOOD BEECHWORTH PINOT NOIR

Review Summary

BROKENWOOD

AUSTRALIAN CRAFT AT ITS FINEST

89 pts “Light and silky, with a lovely burst of cherry and raspberry fruit up front, lingering on the polished finish with hints of cream and flowers.”

Harvey Steiman, Wine Spectator Online
2009

88 pts “Medium red. Smoky cherry and dark berry aromas, with deeper licorice and saffras qualities adding complexity. Silky black raspberry and cherry compote flavors are broad and sweet, with musky herbs gaining strength with air. Finishes with a hint of sweet maple and gentle lift.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
Jul/Aug 2008

“A very ripe nose of baked black raspberry, boysenberry, and clove repeats as flavors laced with bright acidity and dry tannin and carries through the very long, medium-broad finish. Well balanced, structured, and integrated. Very Tasty.”

The Colorado Wine News
2009 - Volume 19, No. 3