

2007 KILIKANOON THE LACKEY SHIRAZ

Review Summary

88 pts “Deep ruby. Attractive aromas of dark berry preserves and cocoa powder, with a subtle note of white pepper adding vivacity. Juicy and straightforward on the palate, offering sweet dark berry flavors and no rough edges. This easy-to-drink wine finishes with good breadth and lingering sweetness. This year's bottling, which is made almost entirely from Clare Valley fruit, is suppler and fruitier than the comparatively dry 2008 version.”

★★★ “An appealing earthiness and leathery tannins augment the classic sweet blackberry, blueberry and raspberry flavors in the full-bodied Shiraz made by Kilikanoon.”
