

2007 PLANTAGENET CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Review Summary

94 pts “Strong crimson-purple; classic Great Southern cabernet; while it has fully ripe and lush blackcurrant fruit, there is also a savory/spicy cool climate twist to the finish; has good length and balance.”

James Halliday
2010 Australian Wine Companion

94 pts “I believe this is John Durham’s first vintage as wine maker. Good job. Juicy black fruits and cherry, a subtle olivaceous earthiness, violet perfume and fragrant vanilla oak - perfectly judged. There might be a little mintiness here too, but by and large it’s a lush and mouthfilling wine with fine mouth carpeting tannins, of a supple yet generous nature. Long and lovely but very youthful - I’m tipping this will become a highly regarded vintage.”

91 pts “Glass-staining ruby. Sexy aromas of black raspberry, cherry-cola, cigarbox and rose. Gently sweet red and dark berry flavors are given spine by a zesty mineral quality and framed by silky tannins. The creamy finish features an echo of dark berries and lingers with excellent persistence.”

88 pts “A lean cabernet with the sweetness of blueberry pie and a bright, peppery bite of tannin, this is ready for roast beef.”

Wine & Spirits Magazine

88 pts “Opaque purple-colored, it presents a nose of toasty oak, sage, tobacco, black currant, and mulberry. It will continue to open up over the next 2-3 years.”
