2008 PENLEY ARADIA CHARDONNAY

WINEMAKER: Kym Tolley
REGION: Coonawarra, South Australia
VARIETALS: Chardonnay
MATURATION: New French oak for 9 months
ALCOHOL: 14.5% alc/vol

VINTAGE NOTES:

After a wet winter, spring was dry with favorable rain followed by a hot and dry summer. However, Coonawarra's cool nights prevailed allowing continual enhancement of both color and structure.

WINEMAKING:

Aradia was a mythical goddess, daughter of the sun and the moon, two important elements in Penley's winemaking abilities. Aradia is hand picked and whole bunch pressed which allows us to conserve the delicacy of the varietal. This winemaking technique adds a more rich, soft texture displaying roundness to the palate. The wine is barrel fermented in new and seasoned French oak. A small portion of this wine is also fermented using 'wild' yeasts, a new innovation for Penley that sees juice run direct into oak for a natural ferment adding subtle complexity to the structure.

TASTING NOTES:

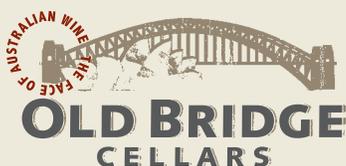

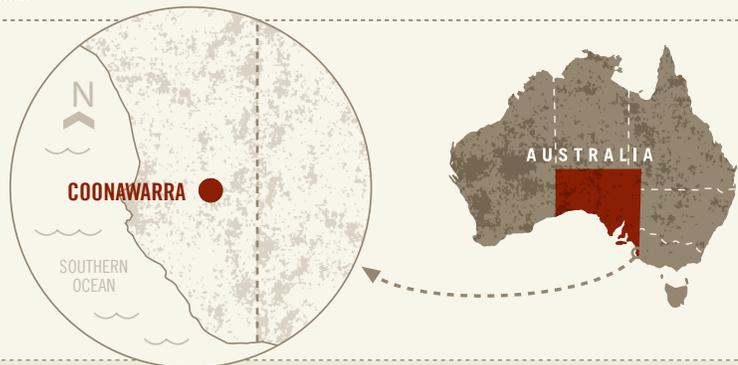

The aroma is emphasized by melon and fresh citrus fruits with a hint of soft French oak. The flavors are smooth with lingering melon fruits and subtle oak enhancing the varietal flavors, without overpowering them. The 2008 vintage produced a stylish and elegant chardonnay.
