

2009 LEEUWIN ESTATE ART SERIES CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Review Summary

92 pts “Bright ruby. Red fruit liqueur, pipe tobacco and mint on the highly perfumed nose. Offers sweet redcurrant and cherry flavors that pick up spiciness and smokiness with air. Pliant, focused and energetic on the finish, with good cut and lasting notes of mocha and candied rose.”

91 pts “A gentle vintage of Art Series Cabernet, this wine has impressive persistence of flavor. The tannins feel open and airy, revealing a range of herbal scents in a subtle cabernet mode of currants and pipe tobacco. Firm and well integrated, this is accessible now and well suited to aging a few years.”

90+ pts “Deep garnet in color, the 2009 Art Series Cabernet Sauvignon reveals notes of ripe black currants and blackberries with underlying bay leaf, damp soil, cedar and smoked meat hints. Medium-bodied with muscular and savory fruit, it is supported by a very crisp acid line and medium levels of chewy tannins before finishing with good length.”

90 pts “Good hue, although light; has fresh cassis fruit on the bouquet and palate; purity alone cannot make up for the lack of complexity.”

James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion

90 pts “A firm and crisp red, with chewy tannins, featuring plenty of dark berry and currant flavors and a hint of saffras. Delivers a long and expressive finish. Drink now through 2018.”

“This powerful Cab has strong fruit, medium-soft tannins, and attention-demanding complexity. Not everything is revealed at first sip, but the wine grows and finishes big, complex and with a length that extends for minutes.”
