

2009 KILIKANOON COVENANT SHIRAZ

Review Summary

92 pts “Medium red-purple; the amount of French and American oak on the bouquet is alarming, but the medium-bodied palate has abundant juicy red and black fruits plus fine tannins to provide overall balance, the screwcap to ensure the future of the wine.”

92 pts “Deep garnet-purple, the 2009 Covenant Shiraz displays intense notes of blackberry and black cherry preserves with hints of blueberry pie filling, cinnamon and anise plus a whiff of pepper. Full bodied and richly fruited, it has very crisp acidity and a medium to firm level of grainy tannins, finishing long with lingering notes of anise and dried mulberries. Drinking now, it should cellar to 2020+.”

90 pts “Bright purple. Oak-accented aromas of blackberry and blueberry, with vanilla and cola qualities gaining strength in the glass. Lush and creamy in texture, offering impressively deep, sweet dark fruit flavors. Becomes smokier with aeration and finishes with serious power and cling. Definitely give this big boy some decanter time.”

88 pts “Crisp in texture, not tart, but offering fine tannins around nicely modulated currant and plum fruit. Hints at mocha as the finish lingers.”
