

2009 d'ARENBERG THE HIGH TRELLIS

Review Summary

93 pts “An elegant, medium-bodied wine that sees its first duty to affirm the affinity between variety and region. The tannins are fine, the oak subtle, the overall balance hard to fault. Seriously good value.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
2013

89 pts “A taut red, with a sharp edge to the tightly wound blackberry, currant and savory tobacco and cedar flavors. This has a classic profile, nicely done. Needs cellaring. Best from 2013 through 2017.”

Harvey Steiman
Wine Spectator
January 13, 2012

89 pts “Deep, bright ruby. Aromas of candied cherry, saffras, tobacco and dried rose. A chewy, subtly sweet midweight that offers fresh cherry and red berry flavors and a hint of bitter chocolate. Echoes the cherry note on the nicely persistent, focused finish.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
July/August 2011

88 pts – Best Buy “A juicy Cabernet with mint an eucalyptus scents over bitumen-black tannins, this will add pepper to a grilled steak.”

Joshua Greene
Wine & Spirits
October 2011