

2009 KILIKANNOON KILLERMAN'S RUN SHIRAZ

Review Summary

★★★★½ 92 pts “Strong, deep color; this is an extraordinarily good full-bodied shiraz at the price, with classic blackberry and tar fruit together with just the right amount of oak influence and balanced tannins; multi premium SA regions.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion 2012

91 pts – Editors’ Choice “A terrific value, the 2009 Killerman’s Run Shiraz is full bodied, creamy in texture and endowed with a long, velvety finish. The dark berry – black cherry fruit is big, but balanced by notes of cedar, mocha, chocolate and vanilla.”

Joe Czerwinski, Wine Enthusiast
May 2012

90 pts – Smart Buy “Supple, ripe and refined, offering a generous, open-textured hit of blackberry, licorice and smoke flavors that linger easily against fine-grained tannins. Drink now through 2017.”

Harvey Steiman, Wine Spectator
November 2011

89 pts - Year’s Best Australian Shiraz – Best Buy “Tart blueberry jam and a black pepper back note fill this Shiraz with a gentle richness. It’s soft and ready to serve with grilled sausages.”

Joshua Greene, Wine & Spirits
October 2011

89 pts “Vivid ruby. Assertive aromas of black raspberry, cracked pepper, licorice, mocha and violet. Lively and open-knit, with a silky mouthfeel, fresh red and dark berry and spice flavors, and gentle creamy tannins. Finishes with notes of licorice and pepper and refreshingly tangy cut.”

Josh Reynolds, Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
July/August 2011

88 pts “Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2009 Killerman’s Run Shiraz gives notes of warm black cherries and blackberries with hints of bacon, loam and cloves. Full bodied with a medium level of grainy tannins and nice backbone of acid, it has a long berry laced finish. Drink it now through 2015.”
