90 pts “Superb value-for-money and an authentic/consistent style, the Stump Jump Riesling offers plenty of floral and lime fragrance. The palate delivers simple betel leaf and crisp apple, some pear too, finishing with gentle grippy resolve.”

87 pts “Bright color; showing some developed toasty notes to the ripe lemon and lime fruit on offer; fleshy and forward, yet fresh and lively to finish.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion 2012

87 pts “Light yellow. Spicy orange and pear aromas are complemented by a hint of tarragon. Fresh and juicy on the palate, offering gently sweet orchard fruit flavors and a late note of lemon rind. Just this side of loose-knit but easy to drink and a solid value. I'd serve this with spicy Thai dishes. This is the inaugural vintage for this wine.”
