

2010 d'ARENBERG THE BROKEN FISHPLATE

Review Summary

88 pts “Light straw-yellow. Expressive aromas of yellow apple, honeysuckle and chalk dust. Broad and pliant but adamantly dry, offering flavors of lemon curd, orchard fruits and fresh herbs, along with a hint of pineapple. Finishes firm and persistent, with a spicy nuance and good cling.”

87 pts “The 2010 The Broken Fishplate Sauvignon Blanc is a riper expression of this grape giving notes of poached pears, warm grapefruit and some pineapple. The palate is medium bodied with plenty of fruit and a good backbone of high acidity balanced by just 5 grams per liter of residual sugar.”

86 pts “Bright color; smoked capsicum bouquet, with a fleshy and vibrant palate; full in flavor and a forward style of the variety.”
