

2010 PENLEY ESTATE GRYPHON MERLOT

Review Summary

89 pts “Ruby-red. Sexy aromas of dark berry preserves, mocha and rose. Fleshy and seamless, with good depth to its oak-spiced black raspberry and bitter cherry flavors. Finishes on a sweet note, with good energy and gentle grip.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
July/August 2012

88 pts “A fragrant and seriously savory example of the variety, ready to go; medium-bodied fresh and fleshy, enjoy in the full flush of youth.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
2013