

2010 PLANTAGENET OMRAH SAUVIGNON BLANC

Review Summary

90 pts – Best Buy “An intense, flavorful rendition of Sauvignon Blanc, this is grapefruity from start to finish, balanced by slightly riper notes of pineapple and a custardy richness to the wine’s texture.”

Joe Czerwinski
Wine Enthusiast
May 2012

89 pts “Bright straw-green; has come out of the price-beating role it once had thanks to Marlborough, now competing on quality and flavor, in a crowd-pleasing tropical fruit spectrum and a touch of sweetness.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
2012

88 pts “Pale greenish-straw color. High-pitched aromas of lemon zest, white flowers, herbs and minerals. Broad but firm citrus flavors are complemented by succulent herb and candied ginger qualities. Offers an attractive blend of power and energy and finishes with good clarity and lift, along with a slight hard edge.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
July/August 2011

87 pts “The 2010 Omrah Sauvignon Blanc has a good intensity of vibrant lime leaf, lemonade and green apple aromas with a touch of fresh grass. Light to medium bodied and dry, it offers mouth-filling citrus and herbal flavors with plenty of refreshing acidity and a long finish.”

Lisa Perotti-Brown
eRobertParker - Issue #196
August, 2011