

2011 d'ARENBERG THE DEAD ARM SHIRAZ

WINEMAKER :	Chester Osborn

VARIETALS :	Shiraz
MATURATION :	18 months in new & seasoned American & French oak

THE ART OF BEING DIFFERENT :

Dead Arm is a vine disease caused by the fungus Eutypa Lata that randomly affects vineyards all over the world. Often vines affected are severely pruned or replanted. One half, or an 'arm' of the vine slowly becomes reduced to dead wood. That side may be lifeless and brittle, but the grapes on the other side, while low yielding, display amazing intensity.

WINEMAKING :

Small batches of grapes are crushed gently and then transferred to five ton headed down open fermenters. These batches remain separate until final blending. Foot treading is undertaken two thirds of the way through fermentation. The wine is then basket pressed and transferred to a mixture of new and used French and old American oak barriques to complete fermentation. The barrel ferments are aged on lees, there is no racking until final blending. Unfined, unfiltered.

TASTING NOTES :

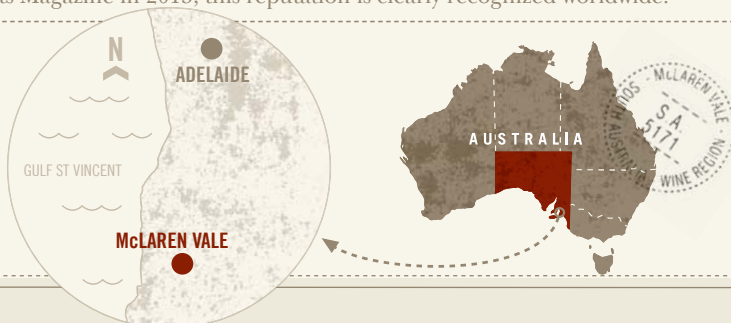

Fruit aromas are initially subdued, with cedar, peat, fennel and cured meats dominant. Gradually sweeter fruit characters develop, eventually taking pride of place. Black and purple fruits, licorice and sweet beetroot emerge. The palate follows suit. Initially earthy and savory, slowly giving way to sweeter and spicier fruits. The mouthfeel is very sleek and focused. Tannins are prominent and drive the wine to a long finish but never feel extracted. All in all, an ethereal wine, that will reward the connoisseur with patience!

CRITICAL ACCLAIM :

95 pts The Wine Advocate, 93 pts Australian Wine Companion, 92 pts Vinous

ABOUT d'ARENBERG :

One of the undisputed kings of Australian Shiraz and Rhone varietals, d'Arenberg has managed to turn individuality into an art form by doing a whole lot of little things differently. The original vineyards were established by Joseph Osborn in 1912 in the McLaren Vale region of South Australia. A century on, the estate has grown to 345 acres, and the mantle now rests with fourth-generation winemaker Chester Osborn. By maintaining a focus on traditional winemaking and nurturing their old-vine material, the Osborn clan has successfully established themselves as one of the country's leading producers of concentrated, characterful wines. Ranked as one of the Top 100 Wineries and Top Value Brands in the world by Wine & Spirits Magazine in 2013, this reputation is clearly recognized worldwide.
