

2013 KILIKANNOON KILLERMAN'S RUN SHIRAZ

Review Summary

93 pts “Smooth to the point of satiny; ripe without being overdone; fleshy and delicious all the way to the end. Regardless of price there's little more one could ask; the price simply makes it all the more attractive.”

James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion
2016

90 pts “Deep ruby. Fresh, perfumed scents of ripe dark berries, violet and cola, with a peppery nuance adding vivacity. Smooth and broad on entry, then more taut in the middle, offering sweet blackberry and cherry flavors and a building touch of vanilla. Generous, supple Shiraz with solid finishing punch and gentle tannins sneaking in late to add grip.”

Josh Reynolds, Vinous
March 2016

88 pts/BEST BUY “With its black plum-skin tannins and cherry-scented warmth, this is a rich red for cookouts.”

Joshua Greene, Wine & Spirits Magazine
October 2015

88 pts “Cherry and red berry flavors are accented by fresh herb, earth and dried floral notes in this open-knit red, with a savory detail lingering on the finish.”

MaryAnn Worobiec, WineSpectator.com
2016

87 pts “Deep garnet-purple in color, the 2013 Killerman’s Run Shiraz has intense aromas of blackberries, black cherries, cassis with touches licorice, chocolate, earth and charcoal.”

Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate
July 2015
