| REGION: | South Australia |
| VARIETALS: | Shiraz (60%), Grenache (40%) |
| MATURATION: | American and French oak barriques |
| ALCOHOL: | 14.5% alc/vol |

BACKGROUND:

Named after a legendary Clare Valley squatter, Killerman, who planted and tended vines on a paddock adjoining the Kilikanoon property, this range consists of the Killerman's Run Shiraz, Killerman's Run Cabernet Sauvignon, and Killerman's Run Shiraz Grenache.

WINEMAKING:

The Killerman's Run Shiraz Grenache is sourced from premium areas of South Australia. Hand-selected fruit parcels, maturation in American and French oak casks for up to two years and attention to final blending has ensured a wine of great poise and balance.

TASTING NOTES:

The 2005 Killerman's Run Shiraz Grenache is a bright crimson color with purple tints. Lifted aromas of ripe plums, black raspberries and subtle charry oak characters meld together to create a balanced, fruit forward wine. The ripe Shiraz and Grenache fruit compliment one another perfectly providing a sweet and spicy mid palate along with a long, elegant finish. This wine has a cellaring potential of at least 6–8 years.

ABOUT KILIKANOON:

Founded in 1997 by Kevin Mitchell, Kilikanoon is a boutique Clare Valley winery with an international reputation for producing regionally expressive, terroir-driven wines. The Kilikanoon property, featuring a circa 1860s stone cottage housing Kilikanoon tasting room, was originally settled by early English migrants who named it after an historic old mansion in Cornwall. On purchasing the property in the 1990s, Kevin Mitchell inherited 30 year old Shiraz, Cabernet, Grenache and Riesling vineyards, many of which were planted by his father, Mort, in the 1960s. Fifteen years on, with the addition of partners Nathan Waks, a principal cellist with the Sydney Symphony, and Bruce Baudinet, Managing Director of Oracle Estates, Kilikanoon is rated by US and Australian critics as one of the Clare Valley's outstanding wineries, producing bracingly intense and long-lived Rieslings, along with powerful, yet balanced, Shiraz, Grenache and Cabernet Sauvignon.
