

2004 d'ARENBERG THE LOVE GRASS

Review Summary

89 pts “Firm and frankly gamy, but plenty of blackberry and plum fruit comes through, emerging and persisting on the finish. A rugged wine that needs cellaring to bring some polish to it.”

Wine Spectator
September 30, 2006

89 pts “Dark violet. High-pitched floral bouquet of fresh rose, blackcurrant and blackberry. A rich, supple shiraz with broad, almost confectionery dark berry flavors and hints of licorice, floral candies and chewing tobacco. For all its sweetness, it's also bright, even racy for shiraz, with good precision and delineation of fruit and herb flavors. Finishes with fine-grained, harmonious tannins.”

Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar
Jul/Aug 2006