

2005 d'ARENBERG THE LUCKY LIZARD Review Summary

90 points “Lithe and polished, a wine of subtlety and grace, powered with lively pear and citrus against hints of dusky spice as the finish lingers.”

Wine Spectator
November 15, 2006

90 pts “Light yellow. Buttery, lush aromas of baked apple, orange, toasted nuts and fresh bread. Quite chewy, with strong flavors of iodine, mineral, orange zest and licorice. A hint of dried white flowers comes up on the round, concentrated finish. This has impressive grip and thrust, not to mention complexity.”

Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
Jul/Aug 2006

92 pts “Radically different to the Olive Grove Chardonnay; elegant and precise citrus, melon and apple; complex bouquet from barrel ferment, but not over the top.”

James Halliday
2008 Wine Companion