

2008 d'ARENBERG
THE STUMP JUMP
SAUVIGNON BLANC
Review Summary

88 pts - Best of the Best by Variety “Ripe tropical bouquet with a slight pungent edge; good weight, crisp and well defined.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
2010

“We’re normally spruiking the virtues of d’Arenberg’s reds, but their new Stump Jump whites deserve a not at the price – especially if the retailers get stuck into them. They’re all as fresh as new season apples and true to their varietal labels. The Sauvignon Blanc is chalky dry with bracing, fresh acidity...No doubt the cool-grown Adelaide Hills component tempers the sauvignon.”

Chris Shanahan
Canberra Times
March 2010