

2009 YERINGBERG CHARDONNAY

Review Summary

94 pts “Bright color; restrained bouquet of pear, grapefruit and delicate spices; the palate is fine, focused and pure, with a gentle underpinning of fennel and spice providing complexity, while the fine fruit provides generosity; elegant in style, yet long and expansive.”

93 pts “Pale, hazy yellow. Spicy, floral-accented aromas of tangerine, Meyer lemon, fig and honeysuckle, with hints of iodine and truffle that reminded me of Chassagne-Montrachet. Juicy and refreshingly taut, boasting excellent lift to its spicy citrus and floral flavors. Restrained in an Old World manner, with impressive expansiveness and thrust to the finish. This intriguing, grown-up, fat-free rendition of chardonnay was among the better Australian versions of the variety that I tasted this year.”
