

2009 d'ARENBERG THE MONEY SPIDER Review Summary

89 pts “Light, bright yellow. Talc, citrus fruits and peppery spice on the nose. Shows more vivacity than most examples of this variety, offering tangy lemon and candied ginger flavors and a touch of riper tangerine. Finishes with good nervy grip and spicy persistence. I’m not sure I’d have guessed that this was roussanne.”

89 pts “Ripe and distinctive for its tangy star fruit and Rangpur character around the core of pear and spice, lingering easily.”

89 pts “Opens on the nose with a lift of floral spices and a touch of lemon and honey. The palate is crisp and fresh with a rich texture and slight viscosity. Good length and persistence with a crisp lingering acidity.”
