This has extra layers of fruit and spice, offering earthtinged blackberry, cherry and Asian five spice character at the core, lingering beautifully on the finegrained finish.

Deep red. Explosive bouquet of rich, deep blackberry and cassis, musky herbs, anise and mocha. A shapely wine, with a plush, rounded texture and sweet, penetrating wild berry and herb flavors that call to mind a top-notch Chateauneuf du Pape. Finishes on a sweet note of boysenberry, with gentle, well-knit tannins.

2004 d'ARENBERG THE DERELICT VINEYARD Review Summary

94 pts “A powerful wine, which could only come from McLaren Vale and relatively old vines. It has tannin structure seldom seen in the Barossa, and no cosmetic overtones to the black fruits, chocolate and spices.”

James Halliday
2009 Wine Companion

92 pts “A brilliant effort, the 2004 Grenache The Derelict Vineyard represents a Grenache on steroids. Its deep ruby/purple-tinged color is accompanied by a sweet kiss of kirsch liqueur intermixed with licorice, pepper, and a touch of lavender. Full-bodied with superb concentration, a beautiful, multilayered texture, sweet tannin, low acidity, and a long, supple finish, it should provide plenty of pleasure over the next 7-8 years.”
