

2009 PENLEY ESTATE
HYLAND SHIRAZ
Review Summary

92 pts “Long and quite luscious, with deep brightly lit plum-like fruit and slippery fine-grained oak underpinned by firmish but pliant tannin, it finishes with a hint of mineral.”

Jeremy Oliver, The Australian Wine Annual 2012

90 pts “Deep garnet-purple in color, the 2009 Hyland Shiraz has notes of warm mulberries, plums and blueberry preserves with nuances of Chinese five spice and aniseed. Concentrated, full bodied and with a medium to firm level of chewy tannins, it has lively acid and a long finish. Drink it now to 2017.”

Lisa Perrotti-Brown, eRobertParker.com, Issue #199
February 2012

89 pts “Medium red-purple; a pleasant medium-bodied red, the black cherry and plum fruit with fine, ripe tannins and soft, mocha oak. No need to cellar, just enjoy.”

James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion
2012

89 pts “Smooth and polished, with a roundness to the ripe plum and spice flavors, finishing with a hint of chalkiness. This has depth and finishes with power on an open frame.”

Harvey Steinman, Wine Spectator
July 31, 2011

88 pts “Opaque ruby. High-toned aromas of spicy oak, black raspberry, celery seed and vanilla. Supple and sweet, with flavors of red berry preserves, dark chocolate, mocha and vanillin oak. A clean, sweet, modern shiraz, finishing with supple tannins and good length.”

Josh Reynolds, Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
July/August 2011
