

2009 KILIKANOON M RESERVE SHIRAZ

Review Summary

95 pts “From a single vineyard, and spent 24 months in French and American oak. Deeply colored, the bouquet speaks first of its place of origin, the full-bodied palate likewise; is arguably the richest and fullest of the range, but lacks the finesse of the best. If you trust the cork gods, time may change the order of these things.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
2013

92 pts “The 2009 M Reserve Shiraz has a very deep purple-black color and aromas of fresh black plums, black cherries and blackberries over toast, black pepper, dried Provence herbs, cumin seed and tree bark. Firmly structured with a high level of chewy tannins and racy acid, it has concentrated, vibrant berry and earth flavors on the full bodied palate, finishing long. It should drink best 2014 to 2022+.”

Lisa Perrotti-Brown
eRobertParker.com
February 2012

91 pts “Opaque ruby. An exotically perfumed bouquet displays black and blue fruits, incense and vanilla. Deeply pitched and broad in the mouth, offering intense cherry-cola and blueberry flavors and a touch of clove. Big and rich but balanced, with strong finishing punch and lingering sweetness.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
July/August 2012

90 pts “This firm Shiraz shows a bit of grit weaving through the deep ripe plum and coffee flavors, but that smoothes out quickly. Finishes with intensity. Drink now through 2017. Tasted twice, with consistent notes.”

Harvey Steiman
Wine Spectator
June 30, 2012