THE STUMP JUMP
SAUVIGNON BLANC
Review Summary

88 pts “Pale yellow. Energetic aromas of lemon, herbs and dried flowers. The palate shows good clarity and energy, with spicy lift to the penetrating lemon and succulent herb flavors. Offers good intensity for the price, with a smoky, herb-laced finish featuring lingering citrus notes. This is pretty grown-up for the price.”

GREAT VALUE – “Light in flavor while full in body, this wine packs plenty of warmth into a simple, lemony finish. For the cocktail hour.”
