

2011 d'ARENBERG THE DRY DAM Review Summary

88 pts/Best Buy “There are some touches of petrol in the aroma of this rich Riesling, melding with the lemon-lime scents into a clean finish. A juicy white for scallops tossed with sautéed leeks.”

88 pts “Lemon pith and green apple on the nose, along with a smoky, herbal quality that reminded me of mezcal. Sappy and expansive, offering plump citrus and orchard fruit flavors and a hint of anise. Closes with good breadth and a note of candied orange.”

88 pts “Bright and appealing for its juicy apple, tropical fruit and lime flavors, finishing with a soft balance. Drink now.”

86 pts “The 2011 The Dry Dam Riesling has aromas of honeysuckle, limes and green apples with a hint of grapefruit peel. Light-bodied and somewhat sweet (18 grams per liter of residual sugar), it has lively acidity cutting through the nervy citric flavors, finishing long. Delicious now, it should keep to 2015.”
