

2012 GREYWACKE SAUVIGNON BLANC

Review Summary

GREYWACKE

Kevin Judd

92 pts “An example of what great winemakers can achieve in tricky vintages. It's a more restrained style than in the past, owing to a cooler season, but it's still a lovely wine: fresh, focused and long with attractive gooseberry, pear and orange peel complexity.”

92 pts “Fabulous, luminous stuff, with all the clarity you could hope for, a good dose of Marlborough punchiness, but subtle and relatively elegant too. Long and dry, the acidity shimmering.”

92 pts “Lively, rich and quite intense with aromas of blackcurrant and grassy green pepper. There's some pear, apple and spice character on the palate, which balances richness and attractive greenness. Ripe, broad and stylish.”

91 pts – Smart Buy “Extremely aromatic, with honeysuckle, lemongrass and lemon zest notes up front, followed by equally powerful lemon, tangerine and nectarine flavors. Everything comes together on a smooth, supple and light body, revealing plenty of juicy highlights.”

89 pts – Very Good “This almost clear colored wine opens with a flint and gooseberry like bouquet with notes of green pepper. On the palate, this wine is light bodied, acidic, and sharp. The flavor profile is a mineral infused mild grapefruit with hints of green pepper and tangerine. The finish is dry and nicely refreshing. The panel suggested that with wine would pair well with bacon wrapped scallops or cherrystones.”

“...full-on flavours of melons, pink grapefruit, papaya and green peppers, with a spine of brisk acidity.”

“The fourth vintage and another benchmark. Intense, fragrant sugarsnap pea and lemongrass flavours with a mineral, slightly salty undertow. Very fresh and nervy, but with textural depth and breadth.”
