

2009 PLANTAGENET
OMRAH SHIRAZ
Review Summary

90 pts/Best Buy/Year's Best Australian Shiraz "A fragrant and zesty shiraz, this has the scent of crushed green peppercorns and the stark beauty of flowers growing directly out of rock. Its red fruit lasts with an earthy tension, the wine approachable now and over the next several years."

Joshua Greene
Wine & Spirits Magazine
October 2012

90 pts "Clear, light red-purple; spice and pepper perfectly season the red cherry/berry fruit of the bouquet and light- to medium-bodied palate alike; fine tannins lend structural support and complexity. Ready now for whatever food (not fish) you choose."

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
2013

90 pts "Saturated ruby. Black and blue fruits on the nose and palate, with cracked pepper and allspice nuances adding complexity. Becomes more floral with air and shows no rough edges. A sappy, seamless wine that offers very good intensity and strong finishing punch."

Josh Raynolds

July/August 2012

90 pts "Distinctive for a salty edge to the spicy black currant and blueberry flavors, balanced against refreshing acidity and supple tannins. Finishes with savor."
