

2011 PLANTAGENET OMRAH SAUVIGNON BLANC

Review Summary

89 pts “Light straw-green; a fresh and zesty wine with citrus flavors ranging from grapefruit to mandarin, thence tropical; tailor-made for early drinking.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
2013

89 pts “Bright straw. Tangy citrus and pear aromas, with hints of jasmine, vanilla, marzipan and white pepper. Silky and creamy in the mouth, showing precise pear and apple flavors along with exotic notes of mango and fresh pineapple. Shows good concentration and focus, finishing on a lively note of lime zest, with lingering notes of smoke and vanilla bean.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
July/August 2012

88 pts “This medium weight Sauvignon Blanc features admirable purity and focus. The lime and mixed citrus aromas and flavors are very clean and likable, showing decent length on the crisp, slightly chalky-textured finish. Drink now”

Joe Czerwinski
Wine Enthusiast
September 2013

88 pts/Best Buy “A delicate white for pan roasted sole, this has clean lemongrass notes and a little capsicum spice. It’s simple, juicy and refreshing.”

Joshua Greene
Wine & Spirits Magazine
October 2012

88 pts “Light, vibrant and appealing for its pear and herb flavors, finishing with a hint of lime.”

Harvey Steiman
WineSpectator.com
2012