

2007 KILIKANOON PRODIGAL GRENACHE

Review Summary

90 pts “Bright red. Very pretty, floral aromas of raspberry, rose, white pepper and spicy oak. Supple, velvety and focused, with an alluring sweetness to its deep red fruit flavors. Really spreads out to saturate the palate on the back half. Finishes subtle and long, with echoes of spice and candied flowers.”

90 pts “It sports fragrant cherry and garrigue aromas followed by a spicy, ripe, full-bodied Chateauf-neuf-du-Pape-like wine with a smooth texture and a lengthy finish. Drink it over the next 6-8 years.”

“With grapes from 60-year-old vineyards in the Clare Valley, this grenache has excellent intensity and concentration. Aromas include kirsch and chocolate while the flavors range from cherries and oak. Very nice and one of our favorites.”

“This has a hint of volatility on the nose but beyond that it explodes with peppery spice, balsamic notes, red currant and candied strawberry fruit, a little vanilla and some fine orange blossom/fennel herb notes. Smooth on entry, this shows off a nice, soft chocolate note on entry that is followed by rather pronounced strawberry fruit. There’s nice tension on the palate with crisp tannins and good acids driving the modest finish.”
