

2010 YERINGBERG
PINOT NOIR
Review Summary

96 pts “Clear, bright red-purple; a seriously good pinot noir, with detail and balance immediately obvious; gently savoury/forestry tannins and integrated French oak frame the dark cherry fruit at the heart of the wine.”

90 pts “Matured in 30% new wood and aged for a total of 19 months in barrel, the 2010 Pinot Noir displays a pale to medium ruby-purple color and notes of ripe raspberries and warm strawberries over hints of underbrush, moss covered tree bark and cinnamon stick. Light to medium-bodied, it offers a great amount of warm red berry and spice flavors in the mouth with a low to medium level of silky tannins, medium-high / balanced acid and a long finish. Drink it now to 2016+.”

June 2012

89 pts “Light red. Redcurrant and cherry on the fragrant nose. Spicy and refreshingly bitter, offering lively red fruit flavors and a touch of smoky herbs. Finishes firm and dry, with good cut and lingering spiciness.”
