

2011 YERINGBERG MARSANNE ROUSSANNE

Review Summary

94 pts “Pale straw-green; at the dawn of its life, apple peel, citrus, spice and chalky acidity all waiting quietly for their time to come out. Has a proud pedigree.”

91+ pts “Blended of 57% Marsanne and 43% Roussanne, the 2011 Marsanne Roussanne comes from a single vineyard of vines planted in 1973 (Marsanne) and 1983 (Roussanne). It receives no malolactic fermentation, no new oak and is aged in old oak for 8 months. It offers expressive aromas of honeyed white peach, ripe apple and lemon curd with hints of allspice and white blossoms. Light-bodied, crisp and dry in the mouth, the palate is delicately laced with honeyed peach and apple flavors that linger long into the finish. It’s a style that should age well and drink from now to 2017+.”

89 pts “Fresh and expressive, full-bodied and rich-flavored, lacking excessive weight, this offers pear, apple and spice notes that echo intensely on the finish.”
