

2010 LEEUWIN ESTATE ART SERIES RIESLING

Review Summary

91 pts “Dominant lemon zest on the nose with subtle perfumes of bath salts. Fine and quite delicate palate with a really fine acid sustaining a long palate. One of the most delicate and impressive Leeuwin Rieslings yet. Lovely wine for drinking in the next few years.”

90 pts “Light straw-green; an ever-reliable riesling that has legions of admirers in a national climate lukewarm about the variety; the only problems with the wine is that it sells out so quickly.”

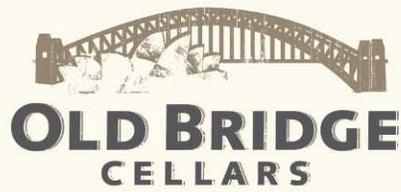

James Halliday

90 pts “Coming from estate grown vineyards planted from 1972, the 2010 Art Series Riesling gives intense notes of ripe pears, fresh peaches and granny smith apples with a spicy undercurrent and just a hint of honeysuckle. Crisp, dry and well balanced, it gives plenty of mid-palate stone fruit and apple flavors on the light to medium bodied palate leading to a long finish. Drinking now, it should cellar to 2017.”

90 pts “Light yellow. High-pitched aromas of lime, lemongrass, quinine and chalk dust, with a pear skin nuance in the background. Fleshy and smooth on entry, then firmer in the mid-palate, with lively orchard fruit and citrus pith flavors showing a refreshingly bitter edge. Closes on a firm, dusty note, with lingering florality. This is delicious now but I'd have no problem aging it for another five years or so.”

89 pts - Very Good “This pale yellow colored Riesling from down under opens with a mild lemon and faint apricot bouquet with a hint of bee's wax. On the palate this wine is light bodied, acidic, lively and mouthwatering. The flavor profile is a lemon verbena and ripe lime blend with notes minerality, grapefruit and quinine. The finish is semi-dry and subtle. This Riesling would pair well with swordfish kabobs.”
