

2010 KILIKANOON KILLERMAN'S RUN CABERNET

Review Summary

90 pts – Very Good+ “This opaque and pitch black colored Cabernet from down under is Very Good. It opens with a fragrant black currant bouquet. On the palate, this wine is medium bodied, nicely balanced, and very juicy. The flavor profile is a juicy blackberry with notes of spice, black currant, and black licorice. There is also some nicely integrated oak intertwined throughout. The finish is dry and its juicy flavors and moderate tannins linger for quite some time. This wine would pair well with Kerrygold Dubliner cheese and stone wheat thin crackers by the fireplace on a cool fall evening.”

89 pts “Opaque ruby. Ripe cherry and dark berries on the nose and in the mouth. Lush, palate-coating dark fruit flavors show good depth and power, with peppery spice notes adding lift. Finishes broad and smooth, with lingering warmth and a touch of candied licorice.”

88 pts – BEST BUY “An herbal cabernet with foresty scents of cedar and mushrooms, this contrasts its green peppercorn edges with a core of sweet cassis. It's dense, though there's enough acidity to keep it in check.”

87 pts “Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2010 Killerman’s Run Cabernet Sauvignon offers pronounced aromas of creme de cassis, blackberry preserves and chocolate box with a hint of cloves. Medium-full bodied, it has very crisp acid and a medium-firm level of chewy tannins supporting the concentrated fruit, finishing long. Drink it now to 2016.”

87 pts “Focused, ripe and appealing, offering clear blackberry and currant flavors, picking off herbal notes as firm tannins clamp down on the finish.”
