

2008 OCCAM'S RAZOR SHIRAZ

Review Summary

92 pts “Inky ruby. Ripe aromas of blackcurrant, tobacco, dark chocolate and licorice. Silky-sweet and sappy, with a seductively suave texture and intriguing floral lift and mounting spiciness. This really stains the palate without leaving any impression of weight. The long, broad finish repeats the licorice and spice notes and lingers with noteworthy intensity. This is the most elegant version I've drunk of this wine, which is made by Emily Laughton, whose family owns Jasper Hill.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar
July/August 2010

91 pts “Cracked blackpepper with dark fruits and spices on the nose. Full and flamboyant with lots of fruit and spicy finish. Verges on jammy but interesting.”

James Suckling
JamesSuckling.com
October 20, 2011

91pts “Vibrant, focused and intense, boasting a juicy mouthful of dark berry, herb and spice flavors. Finishes with a haunting, perfumy note. Has elegance and persistence. Drink now through 2020.”

Harvey Steiman
WineSpectator.com
2011

91 pts “The 2008 Occam's Razor Shiraz has a deep garnet-purple color, giving slightly closed blueberry aromas with some cinnamon powder, white pepper, tree bark and cedar. It is well structured with firm, chewy tannins and crisp acid supporting the full-bodied, powerful fruit. Finishing long, drink this wine from 2010 to 2017+.”

Lisa Perrotti-Brown
Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate
June 30, 2010, Issue #182

“Emily Laughton assists her father with Jasper Hill wines and makes this intense, cherry-infused red on her own.”

Food & Wine
Wine Guide
2013