

2011 KILIKANOON KILLERMAN'S RUN SHIRAZ

Review Summary

90 pts “Deeply colored, bright; the bouquet is savory with black fruits, thyme and licorice on display; the medium-bodied palate is fleshy and forward, accessible and lively, and ultimately a well constructed effort from a challenging vintage.”

88 pts “Vivid purple. Highly perfumed aromas of blueberry, blackberry, cracked pepper and violet. Displays classic shiraz flavors of smoky dark berries, olive and peppery spices. Approachable right now, with gentle tannins adding shape to the juicy, gently sweet finish.”

87 pts “Supple and velvety, balancing cherry and spice flavors on a medium-weight frame. Lingers on the finish, with crisp acidity.”

87 pts “Medium deep garnet-purple in color, the 2011 Shiraz Killerman’s Run offers ripe cassis, blackberries and tar notes aside some hints of tree bark. Medium-bodied, crisp and fresh, it is a peppery and savory style of wine with soft tannins and a long finish.”
