

2010 OVEJA NEGRA THE LOST BARREL

Review Summary

91 pts “This blend has 40% Syrah, 25% Carignan, 25% Malbec and the rest is completed with Petit Verdot. Despite its name there are in fact 80 barrels of this wine and not just one as its name suggests. As a result Syrah and Carignan prevail, the first with its sweet spicy aromas and the latter with its acidity and floral characters. A “Mediterranean” wine given its generosity of fruit and warm nature.”

Descorchados Guide
December 2012

88 pts “Earthy, mellow aromas of cherry and baked berry set up a grabby, tannic mouthfeel. Flavors of lactic oak, vanilla, chocolate and medicinal berry finish with oak-based resin as well as mild stickiness.”

Michael Schachner
Wine Enthusiast
June 2014

CHILE CLASS CHAMPION

Houston Livestock & Rodeo International Wine Competition 2013