

2009 PENLEY ESTATE TOLMER CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Review Summary

94 pts “Deep garnet; an expressive and savory bouquet exhibiting cedar, cassis, olive and sage; the full-bodied palate has firm tannins, yet in balance with the generous fruit on offer, with a fine and fragrant finish.”

93 pts “Crisp, focused, expansive in flavor and open-textured, this harmonious wine layers currant, wet earth, bay leaf and spice flavors beautifully. The finish lingers nicely and the tannins are well-integrated.”

92 pts “Bright ruby. Assertive aromas of cassis, minerals, pipe tobacco and bitter chocolate. Sweet and supple on the palate, offering concentrated dark fruit and spicecake flavors accented by a bright, peppery quality. Closes spicy and long, with excellent clarity and sneaky tannins.”
