

MAISON L'ENVOYÉ
BOURGOGNE
ROUGE
2011

“An attractively aromatic nose of mostly essence of red currant and wild raspberry displays a background hint of spiced herbal tea. There is good tension and reasonably good ripeness to the lighter weight but not dilute flavors that possess a very rounded and pliant mouth feel before terminating in a delicious, saline and ever-so-slightly tangy finish. This offers solid quality for the vintage and while it’s certainly approachable now it could be held for 2 to 3 years too.”

Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
April 2014

EXCLUSIVE US IMPORTER
www.obcwines.com

MAISON L'ENVOYÉ
BOURGOGNE
ROUGE
2011

“An attractively aromatic nose of mostly essence of red currant and wild raspberry displays a background hint of spiced herbal tea. There is good tension and reasonably good ripeness to the lighter weight but not dilute flavors that possess a very rounded and pliant mouth feel before terminating in a delicious, saline and ever-so-slightly tangy finish. This offers solid quality for the vintage and while it’s certainly approachable now it could be held for 2 to 3 years too.”

Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
April 2014

EXCLUSIVE US IMPORTER
www.obcwines.com

MAISON L'ENVOYÉ
BOURGOGNE
ROUGE
2011

“An attractively aromatic nose of mostly essence of red currant and wild raspberry displays a background hint of spiced herbal tea. There is good tension and reasonably good ripeness to the lighter weight but not dilute flavors that possess a very rounded and pliant mouth feel before terminating in a delicious, saline and ever-so-slightly tangy finish. This offers solid quality for the vintage and while it’s certainly approachable now it could be held for 2 to 3 years too.”

Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
April 2014

EXCLUSIVE US IMPORTER
www.obcwines.com

MAISON L'ENVOYÉ
BOURGOGNE
ROUGE
2011

“An attractively aromatic nose of mostly essence of red currant and wild raspberry displays a background hint of spiced herbal tea. There is good tension and reasonably good ripeness to the lighter weight but not dilute flavors that possess a very rounded and pliant mouth feel before terminating in a delicious, saline and ever-so-slightly tangy finish. This offers solid quality for the vintage and while it’s certainly approachable now it could be held for 2 to 3 years too.”

Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
April 2014

EXCLUSIVE US IMPORTER
www.obcwines.com

