

2010 STICKYBEAK SEMILLON SAUVIGNON BLANC

Review Summary

90 pts/Editors' Choice "Fruit is the star of this crisp wine. It bursts with pineapples, tangerines, limes and honeysuckle flowers, with a savory touch of vanilla and buttered toast. Best of all is the brisk acidity that highlights the richness."

Steve Heimoff
Wine Enthusiast
June 1, 2012

89 pts "Light yellow. Dried pear, melon and herbs on the fragrant nose. Fleshy and smooth on entry, offering lush orchard fruit flavors and a hint of bitter lemon pith. Finishes with good cut, length and a lingering note of poached pear."

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar
May/June 2012

87 pts "This light yellow colored wine opens with a mild Bartlett pear bouquet a hint of oak. On the palate, this wine is medium bodied and slightly acidic. The flavor profile is a mineral infused Bosc pear with notes of white pepper and green apple. The finish is dry and subtly fades away. This wine is food friendly and would be a nice compliment to linguine with clam sauce."

Ken Hoggins
KensWineGuide.com
April 14, 2012