

2011 STICKYBEAK CHARDONNAY

Review Summary

89 pts “Bright yellow-gold. Potent, lees-accented aromas of orchard fruits, orange and white flowers, with a gingery quality adding lift. Chewy, tightly focused pear and tangerine flavors flesh out with air and pick up a subtle anise quality. Closes stony and long, with lingering smokiness and a touch of bitter quinine.”

87 pts “The aromas of apples and pears baking in a pie waft up from the glass. This is pillow-soft on the palate. All the flavors are just as soft, showing baked fruit, cantaloupe, butter and a bit of vanilla. The finish lingers quite a while. Drink with fried catfish and coleslaw. Recommended.”
