

2011 PLANTAGENET CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Review Summary

94 pts “The healthy crimson-purple color heralds an elegant, medium-bodied cabernet with a mix of cassis, mint, redcurrant and spice on its bouquet and medium-bodied palate; here the juicy fruit flavors are given complexity by quality French oak and fine-grained tannins.”

I haven’t seen this degree of purity and succulence from Plantagenet in the past and it is so well-judged and well-seasoned with cinnamon-scented oak and minty highlights I did something I rarely do – I drained the glass rather than spit. In fact, at the end of the tasting I went back for another. Congratulations Plantagenet on making such a harmonious and delectable wine.”
