

2012 MAISON L'ENVOYÉ BOURGOGNE BLANC

Review Summary

93 pts/GOLD MEDAL “Well-balanced; lively; lovely to drink.”

86 pts “There is a hint of grapefruit to the notably ripe soft pear, white flower and apple suffused nose that is trimmed in a discreet bit of oak. The nicely concentrated, round, supple and seductively textured flavors possess an easy-to-like mouth feel where there is just enough wood to notice on the lingering finish. This delicious effort is already approachable though one year of bottle age would add a bit of depth.”
