

2012 JASPER HILL CORNELLA VINEYARD GRENACHE

Review Summary

94 pts “Plenty of depth to the color; a spiced, poached plum bouquet leads into a brooding, dark, full-bodied palate, with notes of bramble, tar and earth joining the plum fruit, warming up significantly on the finish, but not falling prey to tannins.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
2015

92 pts “Dark ruby. A deeply scented bouquet evokes black and blue fruit preserves, licorice, cola and peppery spices, with a smoky note building in the glass. Takes a brighter turn on the palate, offering gently sweet black raspberry and cherry flavors sharpened by a peppery nuance. The smooth, expansive finish features velvety tannins and a touch of mocha. In a distinctly rich style for the variety, with the heft to work with strongly seasoned, grilled red meats.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar
July/August 2014

89 pts “Smooth and velvety, with cherry and floral flavors, finishing with a hint of white pepper. A graceful style.”

Harvey Steiman
Wine Spectator
August 2014