

OVEJA NEGRA SINGLE VINEYARD CARIGNAN

Review History

2010 Vintage

90 pts “The Oveja Negra brand takes Carignan to a more approachable and understandable level, offering a more commercial style without betraying the variety by an excessive use of oak or over maturity but instead by diminishing its natural rustic character with the presence of sweeter tannins in a wine that yet continues being the ideal match for sausages or lamb with curry.”

90 pts “Powerful, pure aromas of cherry, cassis and leather stay focused as the wine unwinds. The wine’s body, tannins and acids are in harmony, supporting intense flavors of cherry, berry, roasted meat and chocolate. Chewy on the finish, with sweet pastry accents.”

90 pts “Pleasing and complex, with plenty of fruit and spice, caramel on the backdrop, and a bit of tobacco. Fruity acidity on the palate that firms it for long cellaring.”

90 pts “Deep violet color. Rich aromas of blueberry compote, licorice and menthol tobacco with a supple dry-yet-fruity medium-full body and a long, tangy chewy finish with earthy accents of mushroom, squid ink and hay. A very well structured table wine to serve with grilled game.”

88 pts “Bright purple. Pungent dark berries, cherry, licorice and herbs on the nose. Taut and gently chewy, offering fresh blackberry and bitter cherry flavors and an energizing spiciness. Finishes bright and nervy, with a slightly bitter quality and fine-grained tannins that soften with aeration.”

90 pts – BEST BUY “Deep, inky ruby-purple hue. Ripe, jammy briar fruit aromas carry a sweet-vanilla oak accent. A lush entry leads a generous, full-bodied palate with pure black fruit flavor and velvety tannins. An unusually ripe and lush Carignan. Acidity lends freshness to the fruit-driven style. A good match for game.”

89 pts “Deep ruby. Boysenberry, smoky spices, licorice and musky flowers on the nose. Then pliant and smoky on the palate, with flavors of dark berry and cherry compote, licorice and violet pastille. The sappy, floral-accented finish shows fine-grained tannins and appealing spiciness.”

89 pts “There is tension in this Carignan. Despite the ripeness of its flavours, the wine has a net of tannins and such an acidity that raises refreshing flavours. Another wine to enjoy with offal.”
