

2010 POGGIOTONDO CHIANTI RISERVA DOCG

Review Summary

POGGIOTONDO

90 pts – Year’s Best Tuscan Red “A formidable Chianti Riserva, this is big and voluptuous, its ripeness and oak presented in a smooth mouthful of fruit. There's more than enough stuffing to balance the mineral edges of tannins, gripping and warm. For braised lamb.”

Joshua Greene
Wine & Spirits
April 2014

89 pts “Shows good balance between the cherry, berry, tobacco and leather notes, with a firm structure. The tannins deliver solid grip on the finish.”

Bruce Sanderson
WineSpectator.com
2013

88 pts “Bright red. Floral, saline aromas of red berries, blueberry and aromatic herbs. Very savory and floral in the mouth, with a peppery accent to the blueberry and red cherry flavors. High acidity gives this wine a rather lean, austere personality on the persistent finish.”

Ian D’Agata
Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
September/October 2014